

MIRACLE WORKER

A Rare Opportunity to Experience Expert Skin Guidance.

Stephanie McChesney, a highly sought-after aesthetician serving the Greenville and Charleston areas, is opening her private practice to the public for a limited time only.

Known for her results-driven approach and personalized skin transformations, Stephanie brings over 35 years of experience working on celebrities such as Regis and Oprah. She helps clients achieve healthier, more radiant skin. During this exclusive event, guests will receive a complimentary 15-minute skin consultation with professional recommendations tailored to their unique concerns.

Discover the right skincare solutions for:

- Anti-aging & fine lines
- Hyperpigmentation & uneven tone
- Redness & sensitivity
- Acne & congestion
- Overall skin health & maintenance

Stephanie will be personally prescribing products from Science Ceuticals. A high performance cosmeceutical product line formulated from the source containing ingredients high in peptides and anti-oxidants, to help you build a routine designed to deliver visible results.

Appointments are limited. This is your chance to receive expert guidance from an aesthetician who typically works exclusively with a select clientele.
